

Texas Equity Toolkit

<https://texasequitytoolkit.org/>

The Texas Equity Toolkit is designed to support Title I districts in creating their equity plans. It can be used to guide districts through a continuous improvement process that includes opportunities to align the work of the district, the State, and regional education service centers. The toolkit includes tools for each of the five steps shown below as well as training materials that facilitators can use to guide districts through the process.

