

Abstract Title: Booker T. Washington Project ACCESS: Advancing Community Schools

GOAL 1: ACCESS schools will provide social-emotional learning and integrated health services for students and their families. Measurable Objective 1.1-1: By the end of each program year, there will be an improvement in school attendance and classroom performance demonstrated by a 5% decrease in disciplinary actions. Outcome 1.1: Increase in the number and percentage of children demonstrating improved school attendance and classroom performance each year. Outcome 1.2: Increase in the number and percentage of families and students targeted for services each year. Measurable Objective 1.2-1 By the end of each program year, there will be a 10% increase in protective factors of K-6 grade students. Outcome 1.2: Increase in the number and percentage of K-6 children demonstrating protective factors each year. Measurable Objective 1.3 By the end of each program year, each ACCESS school will demonstrate a 10% increase in the number of students receiving health screenings and demonstrate positive attitudes about health and fitness. Outcome 1.3: Increase in the number and percentage of children receiving health screenings and health education each year. GOAL 2: To engage students as independent learners through high-quality learning opportunities supporting regular school day and out-of-school time expanded learning. *Measurable Objective 2.1-1: By the end of each program year, there will be a 5% increase in academic achievement of grade K-6 students participating in OST academic support activities. Outcome 2.1: Increase in the number and percentage of children demonstrating academic achievement in grades K-6 each year. Measurable Objective 2.2-1: By the end of each program year, there will be a 5% increase in academic achievement of K-6 grade students participating in OST academic supports and enrichment activities. Outcome 2.2: Increase in the number and percentage of students participating in OST academic supports each year.

GOAL 3: To give families equity of voice and power in the community school's leadership and decision-making structures, provide two-way culturally and linguistically relevant communication between school and families. Measurable Objective 3.1-1 By the end of the program year, all ACCESS schools will demonstrate a 10% increase in parent involvement in needs assessment activities school planning, implementation, and evaluation. Outcome 3.1: Increase in parent representation and leadership in community school governance activities each year. Measurable Objective 3.2-1: Services to parents and other adult community members. By the end of each program year, each ACCESS school will demonstrate a 10% increase in parent attendance in parenting skills workshops, adult literacy, and participation in student support activities. Outcome 3.2: Increase in the number and percentage of parents/families engaged in adult learning opportunities each year. GOAL 4: To recognize the school as a hub of learning and community development. *Measurable Objective 4.1-1: By the end of each program year, each ACCESS schools will demonstrate a 10% increase in community collaboration Outcome 4.1: Increase in the number and percentage of community collaboration by representatives of partnering organizations each year. Measurable Objective 4.2-1: By the end of each program year, each ACCESS schools will demonstrate a 10% increase in community collaboration through participation in workshops, trainings, meetings. Outcome 4.2: Increase in the number and percentage of diverse community members participating in community school professional development. Populations to be served: 1,730 K-6 students and 430 families in Auburn, NY Contributions to research, policy, and practice: Community schools practice. Primary Activities of the Recipient: Project management, fiscal agent, provider of out of school time program. Sub-recipient activities: Auburn Enlarged City School District, LEA to provide core academic services to students. Eight partners will provide mental health, primary healthcare, recreation and arts activities.